

Alison Baskerville

11th June 2017, 10:30 to 16:30
Foxton Village Hall, Cambridge

All RPS members and members of the public are welcome

Creative Photography Lecture

This is a joint event organised by the RPS East Anglia Region and the DIG Eastern Centre

£10 Group/RPS members, £15 non-RPS members.

Venue: Foxton Village Hall, Hardman Road, Foxton, CB22 6RN.

Doors open at 10:00. Tea & coffee is available during breaks throughout the day.

Bring your own packed lunch although there is a local convenience store and a pub around the corner.

Advanced booking is strongly recommended.

Book online via the RPS website:
RPS website link

or contact Mark Gillett; 07984 518959
e-mail: rpsdigeast@gmail.com

Alison is a British documentary photographer. She works to connect history, social reform and ongoing cultural shifts specifically in the area of the role of women. She has also completed assignments in areas effected by conflict such as Afghanistan, Gaza, Mali and Somaliland. As a former member of the Armed Forces, Alison is still engaged in the aftermath of war and regularly works either independently or on commission for non-governmental organisations. Using narratives which combine recorded interviews and images Alison works towards storytelling with integrity and a focus on the representation of the subjects with full collaboration.